

Data privacy vs data security defines who controls personal data and how systems defend it; adopt zero trust, security by design, privacy by design, data minimization, and governance prove compliance.